

禪

Published on LUX Prize (<https://luxprize.eu>)

Home > Gillibert

Gillibert

Charles

Country:

France

Producer of ?MUSTANG?, LUX FILM PRIZE WINNER

Competition Year:

2016

Charles Gillibert (born 14 September 1977) is a French film producer, known most notably for Clouds of Sils Maria (2014), and the winner of last year's LUX prize, Mustang (2015). In 1995, Gillibert co-founded the film production company NADA as well as the Kieslowski award. In 2002, NADA merged with the MK2 group and Gillibert launched MK2 Music. Since 2006, Gillibert has produced feature films ^[1] for MK2 on an international scale. Between 2010 and 2013, he was a member of the MK2 management board. In January 2013, he created CG CINEMA, his own film production company. In 2013, Gillibert collaborated in the creation of the investment company Cinémaphore with Julie Gayet ^[2] and François Pinault ^[3], before being called by Centre National de la Cinématographie ^[4] to sit at the Commission for reflection on the new French film financing models.

Source URL (modified on 27-11-2017): <https://luxprize.eu/msp/gillibert>

Links

[1] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Feature_films

[2] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Julie_Gayet

[3] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fran%C3%A7ois_Pinault

[4] https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Centre_National_de_la_Cin%C3%A9matographie